HOOD'S

SARSAPARILLA.

When the blood is foul and thick in the spring, disorders of various kinds manifest themselves, such as a feeling of general debility, a pain or weakness a want of appetite, a languor and apathy sometimes a weariness and lassitude. This condition, enervating and enfeebling, is wholly overcome by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It vitalizes and enriches the blood, invigorates the nervous system, tones and strengthens the digestive organs, and imparts new life and energy to all the organs of the body. Try it.

"I have never found anything that fit my wants as Hood's Sarsaparilla. It tones up my system, purifies my blood, sharpens my appetite and seems to make me over." J. P. THOMPSON, Register of Deeds, Lowell, Mass.

As a Vitalizer.

"I write most of the time in an office, and often get overworked. Not having time to give up, I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla as a vitalizer, and I am satisfied it has saved me from a fit of sickness several times. I take three bottles every spring, and find it preeminently superior as a spring tonic to anything I ever took. My boarding mistress says Hood's Sarsaparilla is a sure cure for sick headache, if sufferers give it a fair trial." E. J. CHILSON, Somerville, Mass.

Superior on Fair Trial.

I regard Hood's Sarsaparilla as the most reliable and best spring medicine. I had tried many others without good results, and consequently condemned all alike, until I gave Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial, when I was convinced it was superior to all others. Every spring I take three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and know nothing of that terrible languor so prevalent at that season of the year. I have just finished my first bottle for 1883, and already feel much improved. Mrs. J. M. CARTER, Boston.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Combines the best remedies of the vegetable kingdom in such proportions as to derive their greatest medicinal effects with the least disturbance to the system. Its action upon the alimentary canal, the liver, the kidneys, the stomach, the bowels and the circulation of the blood is so well balanced that it brings about a healthy action of the entire human organism that can be credited only by those who have seen the remarkable results that follow its use.

"We think Hood's Sarsaparilla one of the best medicines we ever sold for purifying the blood and for spring debility, and do not hesitate to give it our unqualified recommendation." GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., Boston.

"I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla to be the best blood purifier in the market." L. H. CLEMENT, Warner, N. H.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has worked wonders in the case of my wife, who was troubled with sick headache and biliousness. She is now entirely free from them." HOMER B. NASH, Pittsfield, Mass.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me. I can eat anything without that awful distress, and have a tremendous appetite." PARK PATTEN, Gardiner.

Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Sold by druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

march29 MWS&W

The spring influences develop in your wearied and exhausted system an unnatural loathing for food and cheer. You may be sure your blood is in a low condition and needs cleansing.

Take a spring medicine now. Don't wait till your system is further reduced by spring weather, but get Hood's Sarsaparilla immediately.

Hood's Sarsaparilla sharpens the appetite, tones the stomach, invigorates the aged and imparts new life and energy to all who use it.

A Lowell alderman says "It's the strongest Sarsaparilla I ever saw." Try it. One hundred doses, $1.

"If people want a medicine to go all through 'em and make 'em up, tell 'em to take Hood's Sarsaparilla." FREEMAN N. BIXBY, Meredith Village, N. H.

Purify the Blood.

A prominent business man remarks "In the spring my wife got all run down and could not eat anything. I saw a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla in the window of Hood's Apothecary, and I got a bottle. After taking it a week, she had a ravening appetite. She took three bottles, and it was the best three dollars I ever invested."

Remember this fact. You find in no other blood purifier or sarsaparilla the same combination of valuable medicinal agents as in Hood's Sarsaparilla.

That Tired Feeling.

There is no infirmity so oppressive and burdensome to the human mind as that tired feeling of which invalids complain on the approach of every disorder. The depression and despondency of spirit attending this state are immeasurable. The lassitude, languor and debility peculiar to this condition are wholly overcome by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood, invigorates the nervous system, and imparts new life and energy to all the functions of the body.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is a great blood medicine. I take it in the spring when I am weak and languid. It helps me more than anything else, nothing is better." For a low state of the blood Mrs. A. F. ATKINS, Lynn, Mass.

A lady tells us "The first bottle has done my daughter a great deal of good, her food does not distress her now, nor does she suffer from that extreme tired feeling which she did before taking Hood's Sarsaparilla." A second bottle effected a cure.

"I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for biliousness and all impurities of the blood. Last spring I was benefited by it." Mrs. J. W. CLEMENT, Franklin, N. H.

"I consider Hood's Sarsaparilla one of the best medicines for spring, when the blood is in a low condition, and needs cleansing. I have been benefited by it." W. H. CURTIS, R. R. Agent, Haverhill, Mass.

Take a spring medicine now. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla, the vitalizing effects of which render it the most effective spring medicine. No other Sarsaparilla has such a charming effect upon the appetite. No other preparation tones and strengthens the digestive organs like Hood's Sarsaparilla.

STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

The Auburn shoe business still keeps up its vigorous tone. The shipments of this week amount to 2,711 cases. The company will move into the new shoe factory by the last of July.

The Lewiston City Government is somewhat ill at ease on the question, whether the Lewiston Zouaves or the Sheridan Guards should have the use of City Hall on the evening before Fast Day.

Henry Ladd, on a spree in Auburn, claims to have been drugged and robbed of $18 all the money he had. He was fined for being drunk, by the court.

Aroostook.

The Aroostook Republican says "The report of the Selectmen of Caribou, shows the financial standing of the town as follows: Liabilities, $27,779 53, resources, $6,782-57; excess of liabilities, $20 996 96. Last year's report showed, liabilities, $31,009-01. There has been, therefore, during the past year, a reduction of liabilities to the amount of $3,229 48. In order to effect settlements with past collectors and to balance accounts considered worthless, $1,241-89 is deducted from the amount of resources. Had these sums been available assets, the excess of liabilities over resources would be $19,758 07. The town Treasurer reports cash, notes and bills on hand, $4,716 75.

Cumberland

For some time past the girls in the Dennison Manufacturing Company, Brunswick have been missing articles from the pockets of wraps and dolmans in the dressing room. The company recently summarily discharged one of the young men from its employ some two weeks ago. In reality the young man was not discharged. A hiding place was made for him above the dressing room, and he was snugly ensconced therein with a convenient peep-hole for looking down into the clerk room below. He seems to have been kept at the business for a week or so. One day this week he saw a young lady taking a pocket-book from a cloak in the room. She was reported, brought before the court and fined $3 and costs.

There was a fire in Frank Brothers grocery store as Morrill's Corner, Deering, Thursday morning. The building was not damaged, but the goods were injured to some extent. The postoffice was in the same building, but no mail matter was burned. The cause of the fire is not known.

The committee appointed by the legislature to revise the public laws, including those passed at the term just closed, is now in session at the office of C. P. Mattocks, in Portland. The committee is composed of Senators Wentworth, of Bradford, Root of Belfast, Representatives Thompson, of Brunswick, Hill, of Rockland, Heath, of Augusta, Moore, of Thomaston, Donovan of Biddeford, and Emery, of Saco. Senator Wentworth is chairman of the committee, and Representative Spear, Secretary. General Mattocks declined to serve on the committee on account of pressing business, but the meetings will be held at his office. The work of the committee will be prosecuted as rapidly as possible during the summer.

Hancock.

Rev. Timothy Lyman, whose death at Southwest Harbor, occured a few weeks ago, left two sons, who are young men living in the West, and a widow and two young children in Rutland, Massachusetts, where he was buried. A very impressive and unusual scene at the funeral, was the baptism and consecration of the little son Timothy, six months old, the fifth Timothy in the family line.

Kennebec

Major Joseph P. Farley has been relieved from the command of Kennebec Arsenal, Augusta, and assigned to command of Piccatinny powder house, Dover, New Hampshire. Major Frank H. Phipps is sent from Rock Island to Augusta.

Col Smith will be acting superintendent of the Soldiers' Home, Togus, until another superintending officer has been appointed.

Newell P. Downer, an old citizen of Waterville, died Sunday, aged 59 years. Mr. D has been an employee at the M C R. R. shop for the last twenty years, was one of the best of mechanics as well as a wealthy man, much esteemed by all who knew him.

Mrs. Eben Hussey, of Oakland, formerly of West Waterville, while visiting at the home of Mr. Joshua Gage, was suddenly stricken with paralysis. She lies in a very critical condition and but little hope is entertained of her recovery.

Oxford.

The Advertiser says that James Bennett, of Norway, has driven only two horses in the past forty years. The horse he now drives is 26 years old, and he has owned and driven it 20 years. The horse that he owned before this one, he used 20 years, and had it killed at the age of 24.

Somerset.

Mr. Henry Plummer, the oldest dry-goods dealer in Somerset county, is very low from pneumonia.

The Skowhegan shoe factory started up on a small scale, Monday of this week, with twenty-five girls, mostly old hands, who work in the stitching room; but by the last of the month they will employ one hundred girls. The stock at present will come from Lynn.

The Reporter says, a Massachusetts man was in Somerset county, last week, looking after valuable horses. He found eight that suited him and shipped them to Milton, Monday.

Mr. Jacob S. Herlin, who was serving his term in State Prison for the murder of Merritt J. Harmon, of Canaan, in May '78, and for whose pardon a petition was circulated last winter, died of consumption in Thomaston, last Friday, March 23th. His body was taken to Canaan, Saturday, for burial.

Waldo.

The remains of Rev. Mr. Crowninshield were removed from Belfast to Massachusetts last week.

Ninety fathoms of manilla hawser and an anchor were taken Saturday evening from schr. Lee, Capt. John O. Condon, of Belfast, while lying at the owner's wharf.

Mr. Dexter Bucklin of Waldo, died quite suddenly last Thursday. He was injured during the winter while at work in the woods, but it was not supposed that his injuries would prove fatal. He leaves a wife and five children.

York.

By a unanimous vote, the Congregational church and society, at Hollis, have extended an invitation to Rev. Edward Chase, of Kennebunkport, to become their temporary pastor for six months at a salary of $500 and parsonage for that time.

Several of the boats belonging to the Saco boat club, which have been stored in a building on Hobson's wharf during the past winter, have been seriously damaged by pistol shots.

THE BROOKLYN BRIDGE.

A Triumph of American Engineering.

OVER A MILE IN LENGTH, AND EIGHTY FEET IN WIDTH.

("Gath" in the Cincinnati Enquirer.)

To-day I went over the Brooklyn bridge, which is not to be opened for about two months, and is just passable for an adventurer. Roebling designed it. It is a suspension bridge, the span between the towers being 1,600 feet, or nearly a third of a mile. The approaches to the New York bridge supported by the cables are 940 feet long each, but beyond the anchorages there are huge causeways above the two cities, of about 1 300 feet long on the New York side, and about 850 feet on the Brooklyn side. The whole bridge, therefore, as I walked it to-day—going in at the gate in Brooklyn, which is rather on the top of a hill, to the gate where I came out opposite the City Hall park, New York—was 5,864 feet, or considerably more than a mile.

The principal problems before the bridge-builder were to get his piers down into deep water, and to raise the money out of two jealous and rather corrupt cities to carry on the work. Great coffer-dams had to be made and caissons sunk, not only through the water but through the quicksand and other deposits on the bottom to bed rock. I think that these two huge towers, which now seem to be connected with the shore, but were not so originally, stand something like eighty feet under the level of the tide, while they rise above it about 270 feet. The towers, therefore, are something like 350 feet high from where they begin under the river to where they end, higher in the air than almost any steeple, shot-tower, flag staff, or other object in either city.

Each tower, as it stands up and down stream, is 134 feet long at the bottom by 56 feet wide. This is a prodigious mass of masonry. The cubical quantity of stone in the two towers is said to be nearly 63,000 cubic yards. The towers are not built solid, but hollow, and at their summit, 350 feet above their foundations, they are 120 feet wide by 40 feet thick. You could, therefore, raise on the summit of each of these towers two houses side by side, each 20 feet wide and extending backward 120 feet. Over these immense towers run four cables. It is said that these cables, with the bridge they suspend and all the people, railroad trains fully loaded, teams, etc., will weigh 4 753 tons, or in the neighborhood of 10 000,000 pounds. In short, an army of 75,000 soldiers, ready for battle, would weigh about as much as these bridge towers have to sustain in their extremity.

The New York bridge floor is almost eighty feet wide, divided into five spaces, and is said to be 118 feet above high water. In order to get on the bridge I had to walk up a steep hill from the East river to 4th or 5th street. Although the ascent seems very gentle, it is like any reformation in life, however slight, if continued long enough it carries the man to a pretty high altitude. In a very few steps the town, whose level I had left, began to sink down, and very soon its highest roofs were far below me. As I approached the river, what seemed to be long and broad wharves I found to be the pebbled roofs of warehouses and factories.

I had walked, it seemed to me, a third of a mile before I discovered the cables at all, they dropping below the bridge in order to get the proper dip to scale the towers. At the place where the ladder descended I found a crude wooden walk, intended, I think, for vehicles, occupying the outside of the bridge. As I understand, the outside places are for wagons, the two spaces next within for street cars and the middle walk for pedestrians, while the cable railroad goes over the top of everything in the middle. All of this bridge, except the temporary planking and the wooden ties for the railroad, is of either iron or steel, iron being used in enormous girders in the approaches and to span the street.

When I finally came to one of the great towers, it seemed even loftier and grander when I was within it than it looked from the ferry-boats on the river. There are two magnificent Gothic arches in each tower, and the stone shaft between them has to support two more cables. To stand within that huge arch of what seemed to be solid stone and look up at the lofty keystone made me dizzy, yet effectually destroyed the last lingering impression that there might be something unsafe about the support. The towers looked as if they were almost eternal. The cable which so gracefully streamed out above seemed merely links of sausage strung between the houses of friendly Dutchmen.

Indeed, the iron pendants from the cable seemed so slight and indifferent to their responsibility, that I looked at them in some wonder. Near the towers, of course, these rods, which I presume to be also made of wire, were very long, and seemed to have the height of a very tall tree or flagstaff, then they gradually shortened as the bridge floor rose to the centre, and the cables descended until one could examine the entire pendant from where it clasped the cable like a human hand, with bolts in the wrist, to where it seized the brass below in a great U shaped hook of steel, on the thread of which the nuts had been worked down in some cases to the length of two or three feet.

I observed with what diligence and forethought the telegraph people had stretched their cables of different kinds and telephone emasculants amid the open iron work of the floors, where they seemed to be a portion of the structure itself. The trains of cars are all built, I am told, which are to be run on the cable railroad. The Brooklyn approach, I noticed as I came near New York, was of a different design from that in the main city. The New York parapets are more elaborate, but not so graceful and delicate in design. Although this bridge has cost something like $15,000,000, it shows very much of that money, particularly when one considers that in the two cities something like three-quarters of a mile of the most valuable property to the width of eighty to one hundred feet had to be bought out right for approaches.

BOUTELLE & BURR, PROPRIETORS.

C. A. BOUTELLE, EDITOR.

All business letters should be addressed to Boutelle & Burr, and communications intended for publication should be addressed: "Editor of Whig and Courier."

MONDAY, APRIL 9, 1883.

Philadelphia Press: Sprague's folly, Butler's audacity and Democratic stupidity have all happily been beaten in Rhode Island.

Kentucky has thirty-five counties in which no newspaper is published. The Democratic majority is undisputed in each and all of them.

The Democratic Legislature of Missouri has given the Recorder of Voters in St. Louis supreme power not only over the registration of voters but of the voting, by authorizing him to appoint as he deems fit all election judges and clerks.

The Cincinnati Enquirer is not at all squeamish about proclaiming one result of the Democratic victory in the city election: "Three hundred stalwart Democratic policemen will be an important factor in the next State campaign."

The cigar trade of the Island of Cuba is concentrated at Havana, from which port there were shipped to the United States in 1882 cigars of the declared value of $3,341-739.41. The great bulk of the shipments was to New York, the value being $2,387,-618.99. The shipments to Boston amounted to $144,603.61.

Paul Sanborn, Democratic Treasurer of the city of Kenosha, Wis., has left town and an examination of his accounts shows that he is a defaulter. It seems that as a Treasurer the Democratic politician is never a success. Climatic conditions do not seem to make any difference either. The effect is the same in Arkansas, Tennessee, Indiana and Wisconsin.

The Galveston News (Dem.) remarks: "The Democratic party can have nothing but discomfiture and confusion before it in 1884, unless it is marshalled under a clear head and steady hand that will redeem it from the dreary round of blunders in which it has been reeling under the management of professional hacks whose highest ambition, apparently, has been to make it a poor imitation of the Republican party."

The game between Schaefer and Vignaux Friday night at Chicago gives the championship of the world in billiard playing to an American. Schaefer has now accomplished what he went to Paris to do over a year ago, but which all Frenchmen and most Americans thought he never would do. Vignaux had the lead at the beginning of this tournament; but it is when he is playing an up-hill game that Schaefer appears to best advantage.

We have a great many socialistic and revolutionary "cranks" in the United States, and some of them succeed in getting into the newspapers pretty often, but a perusal of any day's cable despatches must impress every thinking American with the greater security which we enjoy when our social and political condition is compared with that of countries which have "stronger" governments. Fellows like O'Donovan Rossa, Crowe, Herr Most, et al. rage in vain. Nobody cares for their insane babbling, and nobody feels that the public peace is threatened by it. We may sometimes feel disgusted, and get impatient, but never alarmed.

One of the most interesting contested seat cases in the next Congress will be that between McKinley and Wallace of the XVIIth District of Ohio. The election was awarded to McKinley by a plurality of eight votes. So small a majority, of course, invited a contest, and for several months past preparations have been made to this end. Wallace began taking testimony first, and so long as no one but his witnesses were allowed to testify he was able to make out a very good case. But no sooner did his Republican opponent McKinley begin to open his budget of evidence than the case took another color. Gross Democratic frauds and corruption have been proved and further developments are promised. Mr. McKinley will doubtless be able to make out a good claim to the seat, but he will have to run the gauntlet of a partisan committee in a Democratic House.

The advocates of a tariff-for-revenue-only policy in the Democracy want the friends of a let-alone policy to state definitely what position the party is to take next year on the tariff question. The Buffalo Courier asks: "What sort of a tariff plank shall the National Democratic Convention of 1884 embody in its platform? Shall it again refer the tariff question to the Congressional districts? We did this in 1872, but the idea has never been regarded as brilliant and it was certainly not successful. We have in the ranks of the party some experienced platform-makers who undoubtedly would be glad to furnish a tariff plank on which a protectionist like Mr. Randall and a tariff reformer like Mr. Beck could stand together. We might, for instance, declare for a 'sound tariff,' or adopt some other phrase totally devoid of meaning, or the platform might ignore the tariff question altogether. But would that keep the issue out of the Presidential canvass? Now let the friends of the Democracy who desire to evade this issue say how in their opinion the party ought to meet the prospective Republican attacks." The Courier has evolved an interesting conundrum.

Our Washington despatches, says the Tribune, show that there is a growing feeling in the State Department that it may finally be necessary for the United States to retaliate upon France and Germany for excluding certain American goods from their markets. The action of France and Germany has been irritating in the extreme, especially in regard to hog products, and retaliatory legislation would undoubtedly be popular with the members of many of our commercial organizations. At the last session of Congress a law was easily enacted prohibiting the importation into the United States of adulterated teas. Probably it would not be much more difficult to secure the passage of a measure to prohibit the importation of the cheap adulterated and spurious wines of France and of Germany. If it should be decided that such a course was wise, precedent for such legislation is to be found in the Non-Intercourse act of March 1, 1809, which prohibited the importation into the United States from any foreign port or place of any article whatever "being of the growth, produce or manufacture" of France, Great Britain or Ireland.

A NOVEL SUGGESTION.

A Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal writes:

The invitations sent of late to naval officers, requesting them to furnish suggestions for a change of uniform "reminds me"—as Mr. Lincoln would have said—of a similar invitation issued by Jeff Davis when he was Secretary of War under Gen. Frank Pierce. One of these invitations was sent to Lieut. Derby, a good draughtsman and a merry wag, who sent in response a proposition for having a two-inch iron-ring appended by a piece of strong leather to the seat of each enlisted man's trousers.

Long and formal specifications demonstrated the utility of this ring. Each officer was to carry, instead of a sword, a long white ash pole, with a hook on one end. By hooking into the ring of a private he could be kept in line of battle if he was disposed to hang back or caught if he attempted to run away. The ring would also be useful in the artillery service for draft purposes and in the cavalry men could be locked to other rings in their saddles and so kept from falling off. The illustrations which accompanied the specifications represented officers catching infantry stragglers and forcing them into the ranks, dragoons padlocked to their saddles and artillery men with cannon prolonges hitched to their rings, hauling huge pieces of artillery up steep heights.

It was very funny, and the clerks in the War Department enjoyed some hearty laughs over it, but when it reached the Secretary he became indignant, and regarded it as insult. He ordered charges and specifications to be drawn up, and a court martial (organized to convict, of course,) was actually ordered, when it came to the ears of Gov. Marcy, then Secretary of State, who was level-headed, and who advised Davis to let the matter drop. He might convict Derby and dismiss him from the service, but he would be laughed at from one end of the country to the other.

Davis, who possessed a deal of common sense, took the advice and Derby's "suggestions" are still to be found on the files of the War Department. Derby, whose nom de plume was John Phœnix, after a merry life, died some years since, leaving a son who is, or was not long since, a cadet at West Point, and a daughter, who was a belle here two or three winters since.

The Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette makes the following impartial comment on the recent election in that city: "The result of the municipal elections in this city on Monday shows that the county can be carried by the Republicans in October. The German Republicans have mainly returned to their old party relations." On the result in the State the same paper says: "The elections throughout the State will not prove satisfactory to either party, certainly not deciding the result in October. But there are indications that the Democratic boom of 1882 is about exhausted."

The committee which has charge of counting the money in the vaults of the United States Treasury is making rapid progress, but possibly three weeks more will be necessary to finish the count. "We have passed," said Mr. Upton, the chairman of the committee on the count, "the point where there is any probability that there can be errors. All of the current cash which is used in the cash room or in immediate connection with that room, amounting to about eight millions of dollars, has been counted. The only variation that has been found is an excess of four cents. We are now working on the reserve vault, which contains about eighty millions of dollars. The Treasurer's office is in excellent shape. There is not a dollar in it that could not be paid out over the counter to-day. We have not discovered thus far a single light-weight coin. Mr. Gilfillan had seen to it that all light-weight money was sent to the mint as fast as it accumulated. I have examined all the Subtreasuries a good many times, but I have never found one in such good condition."

They have in New York a bright young Chinaman, by name Ah Wong, who reports Chinese news in that city in both the Chinese and the English languages, and he is the first "heathen Chinee" reporter that the city has ever had. There are several colored men employed as reporters on the papers published in the interest of those of African descent, and one of the morning papers has, reporting for it, a Russian. In New York, as in Boston, the bulk of the reporters on the morning press is made up of Americans and the rest are mostly English and Irishmen, though in the former city here and there will be found a German, a Frenchman, and an Italian. The majority are young men between manhood and middle-age. At the present day reporting has become an art. It is carried out on a systematic and intelligent plan. It is no longer the slipshod thing that it was ten or twenty years ago. The exigencies of the public press have caused a brighter and a better educated class of young men to take up the reportorial profession, than were those who engaged in the business in the past, and the college graduate does not disdain to enter the ranks and give his store of learning to the requirments of the profession. Reporters are bright, energetic, sober and industrious; and they are gentlemen who respect their profession for their profession's sake. It is by no means an easy occupation, as those most familiar with the duties can bear ample testimony.

"The Gallied Jade Winces."

In our last weeks' gentle-as-a-June-zephyr-trade against the base-minded that, to further their own ends, seek to cast a stain on the escutcheon of the Dongola Boots fair fame, we did not have the vender of an obscene boot (made by one Burke, we think but cannot swear to, they are so ill the known in polite circles) in our minds eye; but if the miserable not light across the back let him wear it. "The pudent, embossed knave," indeed! So to; We draw from your own prolific source of ophthalmia and from like a jaished eld, a mere amateur, a learned villian, a snapper up of unconsidered trifles, and more in our next. But we digress (original phrase used by all writers.) Intuitive will serve their own interests by examining the Dongolas before they buy a boot. The

J. E. Sweetser's Curacoa Kid, Glove-Top Walking Boots, for Ladies and Misses.

S. Newcomb & Co's. Ladies' and Misses' Curacoa Kid Boots.

These are all elegant goods, in style, materials and workmanship. No more can be said.

Full line of Misses' and Children's Boots, all Qualities and Styles.

Ladies' Slippers in the most favored designs.

Gent's Slippers, all styles.

J. H. May & Co's Congress Shoes, an elegant article for gentlemen's Spring wear.

Gayer's Self Conforming Stiff Hats. We have the exclusive sale of these hats in Bangor. If you want a stylish, light, nicely fitting hat, try the Gayer's, Self-Conforming.

There is another "Gayer" in this little city, whose antiquated and dusty Corinthian chapeaux should not be confounded with these. He sells just what he says—quantity not quality; substance, not style.

Speaking of grief—A man who buys a hat of us is not expected to carry a load of grief or appear a condensed funeral. He is expected to look stylish—which he does.

And about that Reflection—In order to protect our shapes from the contamination of any and all "soul-westers" that may stand between our mirror and New York, we have smashed the glass, and styles still hover over establishment.

FALL OF A HOTEL.

Thirteen Persons Killed.

SHREVEPORT, La., April 7. A Standard's special from Greenville, Texas, says: The Eude Hotel, a three story brick building, fell with a terrible crash at midnight. Thirteen persons were crushed and burned in the ruins, as follows: Mrs. N. Pruitt, the proprietress; George Pruitt, Louis Albert, a jeweler, J. E. Ford, telegraph repairer, L. D. Little, conductor, B. R. Nail, a cotton buyer, Frank West, Louisa Davis, a chambermaid, a mattress maker named Hill and four negro waiters. The rest of the occupants escaped.

L. D. Turner was terribly mangled and may die. The piteous wails of the imprisoned and burning victims to whom no hand could render assistance, were heart rending. The following business firms were burned out: James Amstead, hardware; K. Leastie, agricultural implements, and J. J. Cooper, machinery. Up to 4 p. m. the charred remains of four victims had been taken from the ruins. They are simply pieces of burnt flesh and bones, totally unrecognizable. All business houses are closed.

FROM WASHINGTON.

General News.

Funeral of the Late Gen. Barnes.

WASHINGTON, April 7. The funeral of the late Gen. Joseph K. Barnes, U. S. A., (retired) ex-Surgeon General, took place from his residence at two o'clock this afternoon. The interment was made at Oak Hill Cemetery in Georgetown. He was buried with military honors and the escort consisted of a battery of U. S. artillery, two companies of heavy artillery, two companies of U. S. marines and the Union Veteran Corps.

Left Town.

It was decided in the Police Court this afternoon that the bail bond of Edward D. Evelin for $3,000 surety for Henry A. Bowen in the Star Route bribery case, must be collected, Bowen having left the city.

Secretary Folger Expects to Become His Duties To-day.

Secretary Folger has almost entirely recovered. He went out riding on horse back this afternoon in company with his private secretary, S. Perry, and appeared to have been benefited by the exercises. It is expected that the Secretary will be able to resume his duties at the Treasury Department on Monday morning. He has given his personal attention to all the most important questions that have been presented to the Department during the past week or two. The Secretary has virtually abandoned his contemplated trip to Bermuda.

ST. AUGUSTINIAN SOCIETY.

Will Go Into Insolvency.

LAWRENCE, Mass., April 8. The congregations attending the Roman Catholic churches this forenoon were greatly surprised by the announcement made at each that the St. Augustinian Society would petition to go into insolvency, foregoing all efforts to reduce their indebtedness to depositors in the savings institutions by collections. Rev. C. E. McEver, Governor of the St. Augustinian Order, stated this course is pursued because the attachments on church property would not be removed and it is desired by the society that all the creditors should share alike. There are now on church property. The indebtedness to seventy-three depositors in the Augustinian Bank amounts to $405,000, to which with the mortgages makes the total liabilities of the Society $605 700. The Society claims assets of $569,000, which consist of four churches and parsonages, the largest one a stone school building, formerly used for church purposes. The attachments now on the local property of the Society amount to over $60,000. If the property is sold by order of the Court, the depositors will scarcely obtain five per cent of their deposits, but Rev. McEvea says they will be the amount, but it will be years before a final settlement is made. The society's appeal for money to reduce their indebtedness did not meet with generous response.

Twenty-two Attachments

MASSACHUSETTS

Death of a Well Known Citizen.

RANDOLPH, April 8. Hon. Seth Turner, widely known in financial circles in Boston and New York, died at one o'clock this morning, at his residence. He served three terms in the Executive Council and also represented this town in the Legislature. At the time of his death he was Treasurer of the Randolph Savings Bank, President of the Turner Free Library and Trustee of Thayer Academy at Braintree. He was ex President of the Shoe and Leather National Bank of Boston.

The Alms House Examination.

BOSTON, April 8. The coffin taken from the graveyard at Tewksbury Almshouse, Friday, was an empty one and was dug up and removed by a person in authority, having permission from the town authorities. It was brought to the State House at Boston for safe keeping and it is presumed will be used in the alms house investigation.

UNRULY WATERS

Great Dumping Threatened

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 7. The government gauge at the head of Canal street shows that the river is even with the great flood of 1874, being five inches higher than last year. Most of the wharves proper, that is looking in front of the levees, are covered with water and steamers in many cases have to load freight 100 feet further out than usual. Several small breaks in the levee were closed, little or no damage being done. A large force is at work on the Gouldsboro crevasses. The officials of the Texas, Pacific and Morgan railroad companies hope to have the break closed by to-morrow night. The water from the crevasses so far is doing comparatively little damage, but if the breaks should not be closed the loss to the railroads and property owners would be great.

A THREATENED STRIKE

Among Telegraph Messengers.

BOSTON, April 8. The messengers of the Western Union Telegraph Company, of this city, having been notified that on and after to-morrow they will be paid but two cents per message and nothing for answers, instead of 2½ cents in each case, had a meeting this afternoon and unanimously voted not to deliver messages less than 2½ cents and if the reduction is persisted in a general strike will result.

THE BILLIARD TOURNAMENT

Award of Prizes.

CHICAGO, April 7. The prizes offered for the winners in the billiard tournament were awarded this evening. The purse of $1,200 and a gold mounted billiard table, emblematic of the world's championship, were given to Jacob Shaffer; second prize of $900, to Morris Vignaux, of France; third prize, $500, to Maurice Daly; fourth prize, $300, to William Sexton, and the fifth prize $200, to Alonzo Morris. Vignaux, the French player, takes his defeat much to heart and declares the honors are not fairly bestowed.

THE SURRENDER OF LEE

Anniversary Banquet.

WASHINGTON, April 8. Gen. Sherman, Secretary Lincoln, Commodore Walker, Senator Hawley, Colonel Dudley and many others will leave Washington at 5 45 P. M. Monday to attend the banquet of the Union Veterans of Maryland at the Eutaw House, Baltimore, in celebration of the anniversary of the surrender of Lee at Appomattox.

NEW HAMPSHIRE

Public Bequest.

CLAREMONT, April 8. The late Mrs. Carrie Evans, of Boston, has willed to the Episcopal Society of Claremont, N. H., $5,000 for the purpose of building a new rectory.

THE PLOT TO BLOW UP LONDON.

Further Developments Expected.

BIRMINGHAM, April 7. The man known as Flaherty, who has been under police surveillance as a suspicious character, has already expressed his sympathy with Whitehead and in consequence of these expressions an angry mob to-day made an attack on his residence, smashing the windows and doors. Flaherty succeeded in making his escape and fled to the police station for protection. About a grain of the dynamite which was found among Whitehead's stock of destructive substances was exploded to-day in an experiment. The report of the explosion was deafening.

Further Developments Expected.

LONDON, April 8. The Observer, to-day, says the police possess knowledge which may lead to further developments in what is likely to become the most hideous and stupendous plot of modern times.

A Most Important Arrest.

LONDON, April 8. A man named Ansburghe, 21 years of age, was arrested today at a hotel here. He had just arrived from America and is believed to be a friend of the prisoner Gallagher. This arrest is considered one of the most important yet made.

Minister Lowell at a Banquet.

LONDON, April 8. A banquet was given by the corporators of Civil Engineers, at Kensington, last evening. James Russell Lowell, United States Minister, was among the guests, and in reply to the toast "Our Visitors," said: The more important function of diplomacy is to maintain good humor, good will and understanding between Nations. In the way we look at certain fundamental questions there is very little difference between the views of the Englishman and those of the American. Though I may not venture to allude to delicate topics I can say that no American any more than an Englishman believes that assassination is war and that dynamite is the raw material of policy. Minister Lowell's remarks were received with cheers.

Brief Notes.

LONDON, April 8. It is probable that two Judges will accompany Lord Chief Justice Coleridge on the latter's forthcoming visit to America.

If the bill to amend the law in regard to explosives, which Sir Wm. Harcourt will introduce into Commons Monday, should not prove retrospective, many members will support a amendment making it retrospective in its provision.

GEN. DIAZ AND PARTY

The Guests of Boston.

BOSTON, April 8. Gen. Diaz, ex-President of the Mexican Republic, and party arrived at 6 P. M. on a special train from Newport. They were received at the depot by representatives of the city and escorted to the Hotel Vendome. They will remain the guests of the city until Thursday morning. This evening an informal reception and dinner was given, at which Mayor Palmer and others with their ladies were present.

Ex-President Diaz, in an interview tonight, said the statement printed that he was visiting this country on official or business matters was entirely erroneous. The trip is for pleasure only and to become acquainted with our institution. He is not co-operating with any of the railroad operators and denies that his influence will be used to obtain for such parties any concessions. He trusts prompt action will be taken on the reciprocity treaty and says the German land scheme in Mexico so called is wholly imaginative.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Employing Children Under Thirteen in a Mill.

PHILADELPHIA, April 8. The Griswold mills, at Darley, having been employing children under 13 years of age in violation of the law, James McGahey, a weaver living at that place, called the attention of the authorities to the matter and as a result 25 children were discharged from the mill. In retaliation, the operatives of the mill have joined in a movement to boycott the store of a relative of McGahey.

MINNESOTA.

Flour Mill Burned.

STOCKTON, Minn., April 8. Mowbray's flour mill was burned this morning; loss $50,000.

NEW POSTMASTER-GENERAL.

Preparations for his Departure for Washington and Receptions.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 7. Postmaster-General Gresham is closing up his business as rapidly as possible and expects to leave for Washington Monday night.

WASHINGTON, April 7. The Indiananian resident here held a meeting at their club rooms to-night and appointed a committee to arrange for a serenade and reception to Gen. Gresham upon his arrival here.

The resolutions to Comrade O. S. Small will also be engraved by Rev. Mr. Haskell.

THE FISHERIES EXHIBITION. Lieutenant C. H. McLellan, of the Revenue Marine, having been detailed to represent the United States Life-Saving Service at the International Fisheries Exhibition to be held in London next month, sailed Thursday on the steamship Grecian Monarch. He took with him boats, buoys, mortars, rockets and other life-saving appliances. Lieutenant McLellan is from Brunswick, Maine.

LUMBERING OPERATIONS IN AROOSTOOK. The amount of logs cut during the past winter on the St. John waters, on the Maine side of the boundary line will not probably equal the cut of one year ago. The estimate of a Bangor lumberman who is very heavily interested in operations in Aroostook is that the present cut on St. John waters in that county is about 75,000,000.

LAND PURCHASE. Messrs. Hayford & Stetson recently sold to Wm. P. Allen and H. E. Jones, of Caribou, ten thousand acres or about half of the township which adjoins New Sweden on the North. The land was surveyed and lotted off last season and will be opened to settlement now by the new purchasers. From its nearness to New Sweden and the fact that land in that township has been pretty generally taken up it is thought emigrants from Sweden may settle on a portion of the recent purchase.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY ON THE RAIL. There was an attempt at robbery on the Pullman train which left this city last Thursday evening. Shortly before the train reached Augusta, while one gentleman was reclining on a seat, apparently asleep, another reached over and grasped the watch and chain of the other, with the intention of stealing the same. The sleeper became aroused, however, and caught the fellow in the act, thus saving his property. No arrest was made.

GEN. CHAMBERLAIN IN FLORIDA. A recent letter from St. Augustine, Florida, to a Maine paper says: "No one thinks of visiting Florida without taking a steamer trip up or down the Ocklawaha, a small river which winds several hundred miles through the swamps and dense forests of central Florida, and empties into the St. Johns near Palatka. To save time we proceeded by rail to Ocala, an old Spanish town on the hammock or high lands of the interior. At this point we found General Chamberlain, of Maine, domiciled for a few weeks for the purpose of having a surgical operation performed, which was necessitated by the breaking out afresh of his old wounds. The General owns a plantation at Ocala, over which his son is successfully presiding."

MAINE CENTRAL IMPROVEMENTS. The Maine Central Railroad Company, with characteristic enterprise, are inaugurating extensive improvements at different points on the line. Between Windsor and Vassalboro the old rails are to be taken up and replaced with steel rails. Twelve car loads of rails passed through Augusta one day last week destined for that point of the road. New ties will also be laid there. The rails and ties are already distributed along the line of the road where they are to be used. On the back route between Waterville and Lewiston similar improvements are being made and the work is all ready about two weeks along. Eighteen car loads of steel rails were shipped from Portland to Lewiston Thursday morning. It takes about 105 tons of rails to the mile, and it is forty-eight miles between those cities.

DANGERS OF RAT SHOOTING. Several persons were accidentally shot on board the schooner A. F. Crockett, of Rockland, recently, while that vessel was lying at a southern port. A big rat had been caught in a trap, and was lowered into the water to drown him. He refused to drown and swam with the trap. He was therefore pulled to the deck again, and the steward went below to get a pistol to slaughter the rodent. Coming on deck, the pistol was accidentally discharged, and, being a large one and loaded with small shot, about everybody near, except the rat, got a portion of the charge. Larrabee was shot in the ear, Capt. Thorndike was shot in the neck, and the mate, Mr. Walter Currier, received shots in the calf of the leg. The mate of another vessel, who was on board, was also hit. The rat, not wishing to make further trouble, considerately went below.

GALA TIME AT NOROMBEGA TO-NIGHT. The grand exhibition drill and ball, under the auspices of the Jamesons Guards, will be held in Norombega Hall to-night. All the arrangements have been perfected and an enjoyable occasion may be expected. The hall will be appropriately arrayed and will present an inviting appearance. The drill, which will embrace individual prize drill, marching, silent drill and bayonet exercise, will commence promptly at eight o'clock and the promenade concert by Andrews' full orchestra will begin at half-past eight. The reception committee consists of Col. H. L. Mitchell, Col. A. C. Hamlin, Col. F. D. Pullen, Col. D. White, Capt. J. F. Maloney, Lieut. A. R. Willmson and Lieut. J. L. Howe. The ball will be participated in by a large party and promises to be an interesting event. Supper will be served at the American House and coaches will carry couples from the hall to the hotel and return without charge. The price of floor tickets is $1 and admission to the gallery 25 cents.

REFORM CLUB. The meeting held by the Club yesterday was again crowded and a marked increase of interest was manifest by all present, from the strict attention given the speakers and the gratifying addition of signatures to the pledge. Vice-President Hanover conducted the exercises, inviting Mrs. Pickard to read from the Scriptures and Mr. H. J. Darling, of Boston, to offer prayer. Brief and encouraging remarks were made by Messrs. Hanover, ex-President Page, Duren, Bragg, Jackson, Ackerly, Link and Richardson of the Club. Rev. Mr. Peck, pastor of the Universalist church, responded to an invitation to address the audience, and from his able effort we give place to the following: "I believe it my duty to encourage the reformed boys; it is a hard task for me to keep still in the presence of so large an army of workers; I have been impressed with evidences of their elevating and strengthening powers in the community; We must all uphold their hands and hearts in their grand battle; I scorn the friendship of men or women who deride their labors; let us sustain them in their purpose; let our God-speeds and our good wills be ever theirs; temperance work is a success now, and is destined to be more and more successful; reform and total abstinence principles underlie good order, good works and good government." Mr. Tillson, agent of the American Bible Society, also made timely suggestions to the young men of our city. Mr. Darling, of Boston, was the last to address the meeting, and presented the pledge with earnest remarks and, as stated above, was well rewarded.

Police Court.

Gilman Reed, for drunkenness, was Saturday fined $10 and costs.

Henry Nelson, for same, was fined $10 and costs and in default of payment was committed to jail for 20 days.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Georgia Minstrels.

Bishop's Georgia Minstrels played at the Opera House Saturday evening to an audience of large numbers and gave an entertainment of great merit, which met with very demonstrative reception from those assembled. The company was much above the average of the minstrel troupes which journey to our city and the programme embraced many novel and unique features, which added materially to the attractiveness of the occasion. Tom McIntosh made lots of fun and the leading performers were all good in their respective roles. Whenever they come to Bangor they may be sure of large and appreciative audiences.

Esmeralda.

There was a large and steady demand Saturday for seats for "Esmeralda" by the Madison Square Company. The play will be given at the Opera House to-morrow and Wednesday evenings and promises to be one of the most charming performances of the season. Act second (the studio scene) in "Esmeralda" is perhaps one of the most agreeable protratures of the higher order of Bohemianism yet given to the stage by an American playwright. The scene is fairly redolent with dainty humor and polished repartee, and, deals most deliciously with those petty trifles, light as air, that mark the Parisian artist a life. An enthusiastic auditor has termed it "a fantasie of æsthetic foible set to the rattle of china and bric-a-brac."

Notes

"Nick of the Woods," with Joseph Proctor in the title role at the Opera House next Saturday.

Have you secured your seats for Esmeralda?"

Madame Janauschek will shortly appear at the Opera House, probably in "Maria Antoinette."

Every act in the play of "Esmeralda" is embellished by scenery which the company transport from their home theatre—an evidence of their determination to give fine performances.

The Georgia Minstrels will probably make a trip to the Provinces next month. In that event they will appear again in Bangor.

ALABAMA CLAIMANTS.

Hearings Before Hon. Joseph Carr—Important Cases now Being Considered.

Testimony from Alabama claimants is daily being taken in a room in the Government Building, in this city, before Hon. Joseph Carr, Commissioner in the Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims. The claims are of two classes, the first being for damages where the vessels were destroyed and the second for war premiums. The depositions are taken here and forwarded to Washington where the Court of Alabama Claims will receive and consider them, announcing their decision in due time.

In three cases the testimony is all in and the papers have been forwarded to Washington. The first of these was that of the owners of the brig Moses Day, commanded during the war by Capt. John Loud, of Bangor, who seek to recover for heavy war risks paid insurance companies. The second case was that of Mrs. Tryphosa Eustis, widow of the late Captain Joseph Eustis, of Bangor, who seeks to recover for certain effects lost by her husband at the capture of his vessel, ship Milan, of Bath, in 1861, near the mouth of the Mississippi. The third case was that of G. F. A. Avery, mate of the barque Mark L Potter, who claims special damages entailed individually to him when the vessel was lost.

Two very important cases which are now before Commissioner Carr are those relating to the ship James Littlefield and the barque Mark L Potter. The former was destroyed while en route from Cardiff, Wales, to New York, under command of Capt. Heman Bartlett, by the Confederate cruiser Tallahassee, in 1864, and the Mark L. Potter was destroyed in the same year, by the Confederate cruiser Chickamauga, while en route from Bangor to Key West, Florida, commanded by Capt. Robert Tapley. In each case the owners claim about $40,000. The counsel in the Littlefield case are A. G. Wakefield and Charles P. Stetson, of Bangor, and Charles E. Monroe, of Ohio, and in the Potter case are Charles P. Stetson, of Bangor, and Chas E. Monroe, of Ohio, Charles Hamlin appearing for the United States.

The claimants in the case of the Littlefield are Mrs. Salome Bridges Chase, administratrix of the estate of Stanford Tappan Chase; Charles P. Stetson, as administrator of A. P. Guild, Llewellyn J. Morse; Mrs. Ellison, administratrix; A. D. Manson; Mrs. Howard, executrix of Jewett Boynton; Byron Porter, administrator of the estate of Joseph W. Humphrey, D. W. Potter; A. G. Wakefield, administrator of the estate of P. B. Mills. The claimants in the case of the bark Mark L. Potter are Philo A. Strickland, executor of Samuel Larrabee; George A. Upton, administrator of E. A. Upton, Mrs. Bailey, executrix; A. D. Manson, Mrs. Thomas A. Taylor, administratrix, Charles P. Stetson, administrator of A. P. Guild's estate; David Bugbee; Mrs. Chase, executrix, Mark L. Potter and Robert Tapley.

Another case which was heard on Friday and Saturday was that of F. A. Wilson, executor of the will of G. W. Pickering, claiming premium on war risks on both the brig Katahdin and the ship David Brown.

There are many cases yet to come before Commissioner Carr and among the other claimants in this vicinity are Moses Giddings, T. J. Stewart, S. D. Thurston, John L. Crosby, Geo. W. Ladd, G. L. Boynton, Francis Gibbs and George A. Avery.

THE VERONA GRANGE STORE.

The Recent Alleged Robberies—Trial of William Luce for Alleged Embezzlement.

The alleged burglaries at the grange store in Verona have been quite thoroughly investigated and a suit has been commenced against the party who has had charge of the establishment, the suit being based, it is claimed, on evidence obtained during the examination.

The trial commenced, in Bucksport last week before Trial Justice Pillsbury. The defendant is named William Luce and is a young man who has borne a good reputation. The suit is brought in the name of A. H. Whitmore, who is both master and agent of Verona Grange. Luce is represented by Mr. Fellows and the prosecution was opened by F. H. Appleton, Esq., County Attorney, but he being called home by the sickness of his child, the case has been placed in the charge of B. L. Smith, Esq., of this city.

In October last an account of stock was taken at the Verona grange store and an examination made of the books, with the result of finding the store about $500 ahead. Another account was taken a few days since with the result that the store is in debt, and the prosecution claim a deficiency on the part of the defendant during the past six months of $750.33. The prosecution claim that Luce has sold goods and pocketed the proceeds without making any record therof and also has taken goods to his home for his own private use without remitting the proper equivalent. In October 65 barrels of flour were on hand and since that time 60 barrels have been purchased and received at the store, yet on Monday there were but 25 barrels in stock and recorded sales of only 65 barrels, thus showing, according to the assertion of the prosecution, a deficiency of 35 barrels. This is one of the items which enters into the consideration of the case.

The defence claim that several weeks ago the store was broken open and goods stolen therefrom and that on Sunday night, the 1st, just previous to the last examination of the stock, another burglary was attempted and additional provisions taken. The prosecution claim that these robberies are myths and that Luce is the one who is responsible for all the deficiency. The hearing will be resumed at Bucksport this forenoon. Much interest is manifested in the case in this vicinity. Sylvester Gordon, of this city, has been employed as a detective in the investigation.

We feel that we are doing the public a favor in calling their attention particularly to Hood's Sarsaparilla. This is not a patent medicine, but a proprietary article, possessing real curative properties, and its effects upon the blood are very positive. Spring Debility, Biliousness, Dyspepsia and all troubles caused by impure blood readily yield to this excellent medicine. We think those who give it a trial for that "out of sorts" feeling from which so many suffer and which is peculiar to this season, will be quite satisfied with the results. d&w1t

ALABAMA CLAIMS.

The Alabama Claims Court is making slow progress. A decision of much interest to the people of Maine and other portions of New England has just been made. General Cleswell, attorney for the Government, has admitted that the Sumter is a cruiser, and that the Government will make no question on that point. This will settle the case of the Vigilant, owned in Bath, Me., which was captured by the Sumter. One of the disputed questions between the claimants and the Government has been whether or not certain vessels were cruisers. Some documents have recently been found in the Confederate archives and at the Treasury department, which establish the fact that letters of marque and authority to take prizes were issued to some ten vessels which the Government has hitherto claimed were not cruisers. These lists have been furnished to Walker Blaine, one of the government counsel. A very interesting contest is expected soon to begin before the court as to the question as to whether or not the tug Boston, which belonged to the estate of Samuel A. Way, was a cruiser. The Boston was a tug engaged in towing vessels along the Mississippi river. It was captured by the Confederates, who used it as a cruiser, and captured several vessels. The Government has denied that it is proper to so designate it. Ass Porter and the trustees bring suit for the estate. Attorney-of claimants before the Alabama Court say that much concern is manifested in New England at the fact that the insurance companies have filed petitions in the Court of Claims with the hope that the court will take jurisdiction and enable the insurance companies to bring the question of subrogation and of trusteeship before the United States Supreme Court. The lawyers say that no alarm need be manifested, as the Court of Claims certainly will not take jurisdiction, and that the combination has been made between the insurance companies for some ulterior purposes of their own in connection with Congress. Nearly all of the companies which have filed petitions in the Court of Claims are bankrupt.

PLOWING.

As the time of plowing will soon be upon us, perhaps a word in regard to it may not be amiss. The thorough pulverizing of the soil for a perfect sod bed, depends more on the plow and the manner in which it is used, than any other implement. Good plowing depends both on the plow and the man who holds it. A good plowman cannot do good work without a good plow, and the best plow, in the hands of an unskilful man, will not do satisfactory work. Plowing a moderately stiff sod with a growth of grass several inches high upon it, is a good test of both plow and plowman, especially if trees, rocks, or other obstructions occur. We know plowing is generally judged by the straightness and evenness of the furrows, and if the furrows turned over are smooth throughout its length, it is pronounced good work, though this ought not to be a test of the quality of the work. In plowing flat, which is the kind of work many want done in this section, a good plow should turn a furrow so that the floor of the furrows shall be flat and the land side slightly cut under, while the furrows are laid well away from each other, unbroken, but crumbly, the grass side perfectly covered, and laid as nearly flat as possible in the bottom of the furrows. This kind of plowing is adapted to spring and summer culture, for the sward land that is less likely to grow and trouble the crop. In plowing flat furrows, they may be from five to six inches deep and from fourteen to sixteen inches wide, but should be completely turned over, grass down, with no lap whatever. A field so plowed may be harrowed with a disk or spring tooth harrow, and thoroughly pulverized, without any danger of tearing up the sod. J. E. S.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Rheumatic Gout, General Debility, Catarrh, and all diseases caused by a thin and impoverished condition of the blood, expelling the Rheumatic poison from the system, enriching the stream of life's blood, and restoring its vitality.

During a long period of unparalleled usefulness AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has proven its perfect adaptation to the cure of all diseases originating in poor blood and a weakened vitality. It is highly concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla and other blood-purifying roots, combined with Iodide of Potassium and Iron, and is the safest most reliable, and most commended blood-purifier and blood-food that we know of.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA has cured me of the worst case of Rheumatism with which I have suffered for thirty years.—W. H. MOORE, Sun Lake, Ind., March 3, 1882.

For six years I had an attack of Rheumatism every spring, which would last me until the warm weather in June. I tried several remedies without relief, until I took AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, of which I was completely cured. I have not been troubled with the Rheumatism since. Have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, and it is rapidly gaining in popularity. The many remarkable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public.—E. F. HARRIS, Grove St., Burlington, Mass., May 13, 1882.

Last March I was so weak from general debility that I could not walk without help. Following the advice of a friend, I commenced taking AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and before I had used three bottles I felt as well as I ever did in my life. I have been at work now for two months, and think AYER'S SARSAPARILLA the greatest blood medicine in the world.—JAMES MANNAHN, 770 West 42d St., New York, July 10, 1882.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blotches, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It cleans the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure their diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by authority, physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes:

AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so on the occasion offers.—W. L. Paul, of W. L. Pope & Bro., Franklin St., Richmond, Va., January, 1882.

I have used AYER'S PILLS in numerous instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. They are constantly kept in our family, and are our only dependence when we need a cathartic medicine. We cannot speak too highly of them.—Mrs. J. Q. Adams, Mexia, Texas, June 12, 1882.

The AYER PILLS are Handsomely Gilded, of pleasant taste, and are the most agreeable of all medicines. They are the best family cathartic, and have been subject to comparatively few changes, while some of the new preparations of various kinds have undergone almost as many changes as there have been months in the year. The AYER PILLS are the same now they have been for many years, and are more generally esteemed than any other cathartic. They are the most reliable family medicine I know of.—D. T. DRAKE, Druggist, Memphis, Tenn., June 17, 1882.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

EPPS'S COCOA.

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold in tins only (½lb. and lb.) by Grocers, labelled thus:

"ST. NICHOLAS is above anything we produce in the same line."—LONDON TIMES.

ST. NICHOLAS FOR YOUNG FOLKS.

PARENTS who desire entertaining and wholesome reading for their children, and young folks who enjoy accounts of travel and adventure, historical incidents, stories, pictures, household suggestions, and harmless fun, will find these in ST. NICHOLAS, which is recognized by the press and public, of both England and America, as THE BEST AND FINEST MAGAZINE for children ever printed. The new volume, which begins with the November number, and opens with a colored frontispiece, will be much the finest issued, and the attention of all parents and all reading young folks is invited to the following partial list of attractions:

"The Tinkham Brothers' Tide-Mill."

A new serial story by J. T. TROWBRIDGE, formerly editor of "Our Young Folks," and author of "The Jack Hazard Stories," etc.

"The Story of Viteau."

An historical novelette of girl and boy life in the 16th Century, By FRANK R. STOCKTON, formerly assistant editor of ST. NICHOLAS, author of "Rudder Grange," etc.

"The Story of Robin Hood."

An account of the famous ballad, By MAURICE THOMPSON, author of "The Witchery of Archery."

"The Story of the Field of the Cloth-of-Gold."

By E. S. BROOKS. To be illustrated with many remarkable pictures.

"A Brand-New Notion."

A capital and novel play, By WILLIAM M. BAKER, author of "His Majesty, Myself," etc.

"Swept Away."

A serial story of the Mississippi floods of 1882. By E. S. ELLIS, formerly editor of "Golden Days."

"Elizabeth Thompson."

A biographical paper regarding this celebrated painter of battle-scenes. Illustrated with pictures prepared for St. NICHOLAS by Miss THOMPSON.

"Where Was Villiers?"

A thrilling story of the Russo-Turkish war. By ARCHIBALD FORBES, War-Correspondent.

"The Boy at the White House."

An account of the life of "Tad" Lincoln, By NOAH BROOKS, author of "The Boy Emigrants."

"Comedies for Children."

A fine series of juvenile plays, By E. S. BROOKS, author of "The Land of Nod," etc., and including

A Christmas Masque; "The False Sir Santa Claus."

Prepared expressly for holiday times.

There will be short stories by LOUISA M. ALCOTT, and many other well-known writers for young folks; papers on home duties and recreations, out-door sports, occupations and instructions for boys and girls, with popular features and departments.

Price $3.00 a year; 25 cents a number. Subscriptions should begin with the November number. The succeeding issue, "The Wonderful Christmas Number," will have, also, a colored frontispiece and many unusual attractions.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if it is left to wait in the office. Carriers make two and three trips daily; the first trip supplying the extreme or labor routes.

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails.

Holders of Carriers' Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 7½ to 9½ A. M., and from 1½ to 2½ P. M. Sundays from 9½ to 9½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carriers' department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelope furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within twenty days, or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face only, will be complied with.

☞ The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less than if letters thus improperly, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $2.00 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars. Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at the office.

DOMESTIC POSTAGE.

Something for Everybody.

Head, Back and Inwardly Digest.

If you have nausea, want of appetite, flatulency, dizziness, a very bad symptom, you are suffering from costiveness, and Hop Bitters is the Sure Cure;

If your vital forces are depressed, if you have a feeling of general lassitude and weakness, are easily fatigued, perspire freely on going to sleep, are short of breath on every slight effort and have a general feeling of melancholy and depression, you are suffering from general debility and Hop Bitters removes it all.

If you have a sense of weight or fullness in the stomach, a changeable appetite, sometimes voracious, but generally feeble, a morbid craving, low spirits after a full meal, with severe pain for some time after eating, wind rising on the stomach, sour stomach, vomiting and fluttering at the pit of the stomach, and a soreness over it; nausea, headache, or some of these symptoms, you are suffering from dyspepsia, and Hop Bitters will permanently cure you.

If you freeze one hour, burn the next, and sweat another; if you are suffering all the tortures of the Inquisition, one moment fearing you will die, and the next fearing you won't; if you have blue nails and lips, yellow eyes and ghost-like complexion, you are suffering from that miasmatic curse, Bilious, Malarial Fever, or Ague, and Hop Bitters will speedily cure you.

If you have a dry harsh and yellow skin, a dull pain in the right side, extending to the shoulder blade and pit of the stomach; a tenderness over the region of the liver; a sense of uneasiness about the stomach and liver; yellow cast of the eyes; if wells irregular; a hacking or dry cough; irregular appetite; shortness of breathing; if your hands are cold; tongue coated white; a disagreeable taste in the mouth; jaw spirits; blotches on the face and skin; palpitation of the heart, difficult and sleepy; heartburn; lassitude—if you have any of these symptoms, you are suffering from Liver Complaint, and Hop Bitters only will cure you.

If you have a complaint which few understand but which you will give you credit for—an enfeebled condition, a generous throughout the whole system; twitching of the lower limbs; a share to fly all in pieces, and you think you will; a steady loss of strength and health—any of these symptoms show that you are suffering from that hydra-headed disease, nervousness, and Hop Bitters will effectually cure you.

If you have Bright's disease of the kidneys or any other disease of the kidneys or urinary organs, Hop Bitters is the only medicine on earth that will permanently cure you. There is no other.

WHEAT BISCUITS

The Great LIQUID FOOD FOR BLOOD, BRAIN AND NERVES.

FOR A SUPERIOR NUTRITIVE MEDICINE, RICH IN PHOSPHITES AND NOT A CHEMICAL ALCOHOLIC DRINK, I strongly recommend by Chemists and Physicians as

as it does not stimulate the brain or irritate the system and leave no after effects. On the contrary, it furnishes just that which is necessary to the brain, strengthens and quiets the nerves, purifies the heart's blood, and thereby makes each the best of men, boys and men. ☞ It works wonders during NERVOUS and GENERAL DEBILITY, MALARIA, DYSPEPSIA, INSOMNIA. Produces a healthy action of the Liver and Kidneys, fortifying the system against the coming influenza, and is found invaluable in all pulmonary and bronchial diffi-culties. DELICATE FEMALES, NURSING MOTHERS and WEAKLY CHILDREN will find no remedy equal to this beautiful blood and nerve foodstuff. ☞ For sale by all Druggists. $1.00 per bottle. Prepared only by WHEAT BISCUITS CO. Office, 19 Park Place, New York City.

RUBBER BELTING.

Important to all who use Belting.

We have just patented a new article in Rubber Belting which is sold under the name of GIANT BELTING.

This Belting is put with the usual plies of Duck and Rubber, and, before putting on the outside cover, this stitched in seams one inch apart, with cotton cord, which has a pulling strength of fifty pounds. It is then stretched in its plastic state, drawing the plies so close together that with the strong cord with which it is stitched, material strength is added to the belt, and the stitches are so drawn into the plastic rubber, that they cannot wear off on the outside. The outside cover is then put on seamless, so that it cannot open, as is the case of Rubber Belting made in the ordinary way, and the plies being so firmly stitched as well as frictioned together, that the belt cannot separate as many belts made in the ordinary way will, after being used for a time, especially when running great speed, or in damp places.

We particularly call the attention of all mill owners to this belt as being in the end the cheapest belt they can buy, will be the first cost is only about ten per cent. more than belting made in the ordinary way. We believe it will wear more than double the length of time. For heavy main belts we will find it superior to anything made. It is also superior for Endless Belts, as we stitch the splice in such a way that it cannot separate.

Try our Giant Belts. We will warrant satisfaction.

Terrible Suffering.

Kidney and Bladder Complaints of Many Years Duration—His Word as Good as Gold—Case of City Assessor Francis Gomard, 89 Summer St., Lowell, Mass.

"His word is as good as a bank note at any bank in Lowell, and I know it," was the opinion of a well known citizen in speaking of City Assessor Francis Gomard. Your reporter found Mr. Gomard at his pleasant home, which, with many others, adorns Summer street and fronts the charming park of South Common. Mr. Gomard said, "I had been, as many of my friends in Lowell know, a great sufferer from kidney and urinary troubles for a long time. My physician said it was the result of diseased kidneys and enlargement of the prostate gland. I had suffered terribly, and although my doctor's treatment had been the best which this city afforded, I got no better. I held finally, 'Doctor, it's no use. You have done all that is in your power to do, I know that; but I must get help from some other source or die.' Finally I was induced to try Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, a medicine which had been recommended very highly for kidney diseases. I received help at once. It has acted like a charm with me. Why not? Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY is an honest preparation, and I know it, as I didn't think anything would help me, but this has given me better health than medicine ever prescribed for me. I have recommended it to ever so many of my friends in the city of Lowell, and with the same result. To think there is nothing like Dr. Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY."

What Mr. Gomard says can be depended upon, as any one acquainted with the gentleman knows.

WILBOR'S COMPOUND OF PURE COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.

Get the Genuine Article.—The great popularity of "Wilbor's Compound of Cod Liver Oil and Lime," has induced some unprincipled persons to attempt to palm off a simple article of their own manufacture, but any person who is suffering from Coughs, Colds, or Consumption, should be careful where they purchase the article. It requires no puffing. The results of its use are so well recognized that the proprietor has ample evidence on file of its great success in pulmonary complaints. The Phosphate of Lime possesses a most marvelous healing power, as combined with the pure Cod Liver Oil. Dr. Wilbor. It is prescribed by the medical faculty. Sold by A. B.
